

Online Pimping: An inquiry into Sexual Exploitation Advertising Websites

Cross-Party Group on Commercial Sexual Exploitation, 2021

Appendix A

Witnesses

The following individuals provided oral evidence to the Cross-Party Group on Commercial Sexual Exploitation's inquiry into Sexual Exploitation Advertising websites:

- Bronagh Andrew, Operations Manager, Trafficking Awareness Raising Alliance (TARA)
- RoseAnn Cameron, Service Manager, Routes Out Service
- Detective Superintendent Filippo Capaldi, Portfolio lead for Rape, Sexual Crime, Prostitution and Human Trafficking, Police Scotland
- Megan King¹, survivor of sexual exploitation
- Hugo Lemonier, journalist
- Dr Xavier L'Hoiry, University of Sheffield
- Diane Martin CBE, survivor of sexual exploitation and member of the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) International Survivors of Trafficking Advisory Council
- Claire Mitchell QC, Compass Chambers
- Trevor Owen, Violence against Women & Girls and LGBTI Equality Policy, The Equality Unit, Scottish Government
- Dr Monica O'Connor, Sexual Exploitation Research Programme, University College Dublin
- Detective Sergeant Stuart Peall, Lancashire Constabulary
- Lorraine Questiaux, head of legal affairs, Mouvement du Nid
- Rob Richardson, Head of Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Unit, National Crime Agency
- Valiant Richey, Special Representative and Co-ordinator for Combating Trafficking in Human Beings, Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)
- Rob Spectre, CEO, Childsafe.ai
- Linda Thompson, National Coordinator, Women's Support Project

The following companies and organisations were invited to give oral evidence to the inquiry but did not respond or declined the invitation: Adultwork, Vivastreet, Escort Scotland, Umbrella Lane, SCOT-PEP, the Salvation Army Street Project, and World Without Exploitation.

¹ Pseudonym used to protect the individual's identity.